Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Design and Technology examination June 20th 2017 - School will be open to Year 11.

Please be aware that the exam regulator, JCQ, has seen fit to schedule this public examination on a possible date for the Eid celebration.

I have raised a complaint to the relevant public bodies whom I believe may be in breach of their public sector equalities duty. They have refused to move the date of the exam.

With this in mind, we will open the school to students taking the Design and Technology exam and run it as normal. I apologise to you as parents and carers if this affects any plans you had in place as we have designated this as a school holiday. I hope you will ensure that your child attends school on this day to sit their examination so that their academic future is not jeopardised by the actions of the exam board.

Yours sincerely

Simon Elliott
